

Mornington Peninsula

Mornington Peninsula, Strawberry Picking, Wineries, Arthurs Seat

Strawberry Picking

Operates: DAILY
November 1, 2010 through to
April 2, 2011

Departs: 8.20am

Return: 5.15pm approx

Tour 348
Strawberries

Tour 358
Wineries

$169.00
Child: $84.50

Fare Includes: Morning tea, entrance to Ashcombe Maze & Lavender Gardens and two course lunch.

Tour 348 also includes strawberry picking.

Tour 358 includes 2 wineries instead of strawberry picking.

Mornington Peninsula is Melbourne's holiday playground... stunning views from Arthurs Seat summit over the bay with its long white sand beaches, the splendour of vineyards, farms, holiday homes and a quiet country lifestyle, the Mornington Peninsula is a true delight.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Spectacular views of rolling hills, pastures and vineyards
- Beachside hamlets of Dromana
- Enjoy Devonshire Tea at Arthurs Seat - top of the mountain
- Sunnyridge Strawberry Farm - Australia's largest strawberry producer
- Wander through strawberry fields and pick your own luscious strawberries (included on Tour 348)
- Visit T'Gallant Winery and taste some of Mornington's finest wines (included on Tour 358)
- Visit Tuck's Ridge Winery for a further tasting and inspection (included on Tour 358)
- Ashcombe Maze & Lavender Gardens - lose yourself in Australia's oldest traditional hedge maze
- Take a guided tour of the magnificent rose maze and lavender gardens
- Witness and learn the extraction process of lavender oil
- Enjoy a delightful two course lunch while overlooking the maze and gardens
- Take in the serenity of the water gardens, bird life and the impressive rose maze
- Visit the picturesque seaside resort of Mornington for afternoon tea (own expense)
- Perhaps a walk along the pier or simply relax on the beach.