

Wave Rock

Historic York, Wave Rock, Aboriginal Paintings

Wave Rock

Operates: DAILY
Departs: 8.00am
Returns: 8.30pm

Tour 686

$207.00
 Child: $103.50
 Concession: $182.00

Fare Includes: Picnic lunch, admission to Wave Rock and Antique Lace Collection and guided tour.

Out in the wide sky wheat plains, Wave Rock stands as a perfect surfer's wave yet frozen in solid rock. The colonial town of York, set in the lush Avon Valley, tiny wheatlands townships and other strange rocks protruding from arid soil show the real Australia, ever waiting for life giving rains.

Wildflowers

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Cross the Swan River Causeway and pass Burswood Casino and Resort
- Head east and follow the sun on to the Great Eastern Highway
- Climb the Darling Ranges and cross vast dry farming plains
- Visit historic York - original and untouched centre of the Avon Valley
- Look for crows, cockatoos and galahs
- Wheatbelt town of Corrigin - noted for the "dog in the ute" national record
- Hyden - town centre for Wave Rock
- Striking rock formations of Hippo's Yawn
- Wave Rock - one of nature's most remarkable creations
- Enjoy a picnic lunch at Wave Rock Wildflower shop
- Take a guided tour along the base and over the top of Wave Rock
- Time to visit the native wildlife park or browse in the Antique Lace Collection
- Explore the Humps and Mulka's Cave
- Learn the story of Mulka and ancient Aboriginal cave paintings
- Stop at "bustling" Babakin, population approximately 25 for a delicious country style afternoon tea - a special treat! (own expense)
- During wildflower season (September - November) roadside stops will be made to view native wildflowers
- Journey back to Perth passing endless farms and big horizons
- Superb views of Perth's evening lights from the majestic Darling Ranges.

Hippo's Yawn

Mulka's Cave