Stunning beaches, rivers, the inland waterway of Peel Inlet, blue mountains in the distance, villages and towns and the wine growing region of the South West. Taste the wines and explore vast underground limestone caves in a day of discovery along this Indian Ocean coastline.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Head south of Perth
- Visit Cape Lavender Farm - an enchanting combination of lavender and vineyard surrounded by natural bushland in the heart of Margaret River
- Margaret River - originally a 'surfie' town and now the ultimate smorgasbord of fine wine, sensational food and breathtaking scenery
- Explore the township at leisure with its fashionable specialty stores
- Sample wines at a local winery in Margaret River
- Enjoy a genuine Australian picnic style lunch at Lake Cave Tearooms
- Perhaps visit Cave Works Interpretive Centre (time permitting)
- Forests of giant Karri trees
- Cape Leeuwin Light House - the dividing point between the Southern and Indian Oceans
- Busselton with its long wooden jetty on the sweeping shores of Geographe Bay
- A dinner stop will be made at Busselton Jetty (own expense)
- Witness crashing surf beaches and stunning ocean cliffs.
