

Coal River Valley Wineries

Coal River Valley, Wineries, Beer and Wine Tasting, Cambridge

Operates: TUES, FRI, SAT
November 1 through to April 30

Departs: 1.10pm

Returns: 5.00pm

Tour 755

$94.00

Child: $47.00

Concession: $92.00

Fare Includes: Wine tasting at Meadowbank Winery, wine tasting with fruit and cheese platter at Puddleduck Winery and wine and beer tasting at Moorilla Winery.

Nestled between the Meehan Range, Pitt Water and the Pontos Range, the Coal River region is an award winning wine producing area. Southern Tasmania's cool climate produces classic varieties and is especially acclaimed for its superior Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Riesling and Sauvignon Blanc.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ABC buildings - Hobart's original sandstone railway station
- Government House
- Travel over Tasman Bridge to Cambridge
- Eastern suburbs of Bellerive and Mornington
- Pass through Mt Rumney - part of the Meehan Range
- Coal River Valley - located between the townships of Cambridge and historic Richmond
- Visit Meadowbank Winery for a private wine tasting
- Continue to Puddleduck Winery
- Enjoy a second wine tasting accompanied by a fruit and cheese platter
- Visit Moorilla Winery - development site for Australia's largest privately funded museum, the Museum of Old and New Art (MONA)
- Enjoy your final wine and beer tasting
- Return to Hobart following along the shores of the Derwent River
- Montrose Bay
- Derwent Entertainment Centre
- Cornelian Bay
- Hobart Hockey Centre
- The Domain.